DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, 11, drawn to a DNA molecule encoding the MORT-1 protein of SEQ ID NO:2, an analog and a fragment thereof, a vector comprising said DNA molecule and a host cell containing said vector, and a method for producing a polypeptide, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.
- II. Claims 8-10, drawn to the MORT-1 protein of SEQ ID NO:2, an analog and a fragment thereof, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
- III-XX. Claims 12-13, drawn to a method for increasing the FAS-R ligand effect on cells carrying a FAS-R, comprising treating said cell with one or more of the polypeptides of SEQ ID NO:2, an analog and a fragment thereof, classified in class 514, subclass 2. It is noted that the number of possible combination of a MORT-1 polypeptide, its analogs, and its fragment was determined by a factorial calculation, that is 3 factorial, for a total of 18 groups. Each of the combination is a separate invention, that is a separate group, and not a species. Applicant is required to elect a single group consisting of a single combination.
- XX-XXXVIII. Claims 12-13, drawn to a method for decreasing the FAS-R ligand effect on cells carrying a FAS-R, comprising treating said cell with one or more of the polypeptides of SEQ ID NO:2, an analog and a fragment thereof, classified in class 514, subclass 2. It is noted that the number of possible combination of a MORT-1 polypeptide, its analogs, and its fragment was determined by a factorial calculation, that is 3 factorial, for a total of 18 groups. Each of the combination is a separate invention, that is a separate group, and not a species. Applicant is required to elect a single group consisting of a single combination.

The inventions are distinct, each from each other because of the following reasons:

Inventions (I-II) and (III-XXXVIII) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (M.P.E.P. 806.05 (h)). In this instant case, a polypeptide could be used for several purposes, e.g. for biochemical assay, for making antibodies, and for making an affinity column to purify its antibodies; and a DNA sequence could be used for the detection of similar DNA or RNA sequences, for making an expression vector, and for producing its encoded protein.

The products of groups I-II are patentably distinct, because they are drawn to entirely different biochemicals, having different structures, biological properties and activities that are not interchangeable and cannot be used in place of each other.

The methods of groups III-XXXVIII are distinct from each other because they differ at least in objectives, reagents and/or dosages, and/or schedules used, response variables and criteria for success.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reason given above and have acquired a separate status in the art, and because the searches for the groups are not co-extensive, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicants are required under 35 USC 121 to elect a single disclosed group for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted.

Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. 1.17(h).
